The 2nd Annual Contemporary Night Out is a collaborative evening of short, informative programs about various aspects of the world of contemporary art, hosted by the Mildred Lane Kemper Art Museum, the Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis, and The Pulitzer Foundation for the Arts.

This event is free, but we ask that you register online at https://guestlistapp.com/events/161247 or with Allison Taylor, manager of education programs at the Kemper Art Museum. Allison can be reached at 314.935.7918 or allison.taylor@wustl.edu.

Parking available at all three locations. Car pooling is encouraged.

Mildred Lane Kemper Art Museum (galleries open until 8p)
Wine and cheese reception from 5:30–6:30p
6p, Approaching Photography: This 15-20 minute program hosted by Allison Taylor, manager of education programs at the Mildred Lane Kemper Art Museum, will discuss contemporary practices in the field of photography while examining artworks in the exhibition Contemporary German Art: Selections from the Permanent Collection.

Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis (galleries open until 9p)
Light refreshments at 7p
7p, Approaching Painting: This 15-20 minute program hosted by Tuan Nguyen, education manager at the Contemporary Art Museum, will explore the practice of painting in relation to CAM’s exhibition Lari Pittman: A Decorated Chronology.

The Pulitzer Foundation for the Arts (galleries open until 9p)
Desserts at 8p
8p, Approaching Sculpture: In this 15-20 minute program Gretchen Wagner, curator at the Pulitzer Foundation for the Arts, will discuss sculpture in the context of the exhibition Donald Judd: The Multicolored Works.